The Clothing War.

EDITOR GAZETTE: In the Journal of October 30, I find an announcement signed L. Abrams, of the White House. This announcement sets forth that other dealers in clothing keep "humbly shops" and offer "unsalable goods" to the public. He also declares that these humbly dealers "lie to deceive the public." I represent, for my part of the humbly dealer, Mr. Editor, I represent that when I offer "unsalable goods" I always suffer for it, and not Mr. Abrams. The people have been my good long enough to know better than Mr. Abrams whether they come from a "humbly shop" or not. During my many years residence and business in Reno, I have made my own reputation and it is safe from the interested charges brought by this newcomer at the White House.

Now, whether I keep a humbly shop or not, I shall continue to sell the best goods in market and at the lowest rates. I shall sell men and boys clothing cheaper than "Whites" can give them. I shall keep more goods, and a better stock always on hand. And all of these assertions, so far from being "lies to deceive the public" can be proven by my patrons during last week as they have been proven any time during the past ten years.

M. NATHAN,
Virginia Street.

Don't Forget It.

If you are troubled with nervousness, are disheartened, tired of life, fear death or feel out of sorts, as the saying is, you may easily conclude that you have the Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint. The liver is very apt to become torpid at this season of the year, as poisons arising from marshes, stagnant water are more numerous, and are, through inhalation, taken into the blood. Unless the liver is strong and active, and furnishes a supply of fresh and pure blood to drive out the impurities, the above mentioned symptoms surely follow, and if not checked, end in more terrible diseases and death. White's Liver Pills prove itself the great liver purifier. Its action on the liver is different from any medicine ever compounded. Its cures are truly wonderful. Try it. Price, twenty cents and seventy-five cents. For sale by our druggists, OBERLIN & SHOEMAKER. aut eod

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

I do not sell any goods 50 per cent. below cost, or even at cost, but I offer my first-class stock of clothing, furnishing goods, boots and shoes, hats and caps, trunks and valises, etc., which have been bought for cash at the lowest market rates. Therefore I wish the public to post themselves on my prices before going to the humbly shops where they are always drumming into the ear that they are selling at cost or below cost. They either bought unsalable goods or they lie to deceive the public; they don't deserve to be patronized. Remember the One Price Store—The White House—No. 19 Commercial Row, next door to the postoffice. L. ABRAMS.

RULE OR RUIN.

There has been a most bitter and unscrupulous assault upon Harry Mighels for the last two months, Verbum Sap leads, and is followed by the entire pack Democratic. As might have been expected, such opposition has only served to bring out the strength and merit of our next lieutenant-governor. Malice always over-leaps itself, and Mr. Mighels' attitude in facing the music has made him such friends as his enemies never possessed. Certain treacherous Republicans in this county have tried to build up an anti-Mighels faction, but like the Parkinson-Wright faction of Ormsby county, they are falling short. One thing is already assured that these men cannot hurt Mighels or the district ticket without injuring the entire cause, Kinkead included. John H. Kinkead will, if allowed to by his friends, poll a large majority in Washoe county. He is by all means the superior of his opponent, and every body knows it. The fight has, however, been mixed up with local affairs, and those who have worked to rule or ruin, should beware lest they get a just reward for their unwise course. The rule or ruin policy has two sides, and we sincerely hope that it may cut no figure in the election on Tuesday next.

THE DISTRICT JUDGESHIP.

We want to see Washoe county assert her right to the district judgeship on Tuesday next, and for many reasons. First, because Mr. Varian has made the fight of a gentleman against a pack of hounds. Second, because his traducers are not his equals in personal worth or legal abilities. Because he is industrious, reliable and in every way worthy. His record in the service of the people is without blemish, yet his opponents assail that on eve of election. Emissaries are traveling about with prepared lies, without any shadow of foundation. Cowardly Republicans help to circulate them, and all this time Mr. Varian is relying solely upon the knowledge that his cause is just and waiting for the justification which he knows will come. We know that the people love fair play, and therefore ask them to rebuke such a bitter and unmanly attack as has been made upon Mr. Varian. He is a good Republican, and will honor the bench. If you, voters, will give him fair play Washoe will win what belongs to her, the District judgeship.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Boston Herald thinks that Mr. Tilden's indignation when he learned that intimate personal and political friends of his had been sending dispatches about buying electoral votes, and even disgracing his own house in relation thereto by an unwarranted abuse of hospitality, must have been violent enough to be heard in New Jersey. The only mollifying circumstance was the failure of their plot, as it turned out. Mr. Tilden can never feel toward them exactly as he did before he discovered their lack of integrity. In short, he must feel toward them as the colored woman did toward her son, who, being under strict orders not to steal watermelons, was not only base enough to disobey her but weak enough to steal green ones.

Every man should vote, and vote his sentiments. There are candidates before the people of recognized ability whose worth cannot be questioned. There are men named for office who have always been outspoken and on the side of the people. There are aspirants in the field who have always been known as fearless champions of the people and opposed to rings, corporations and unfaithful officers. We counsel every voter to endorse all Republicans of this type. Other things being equal, Republicanism is always the best. If the record is appealed to then everybody must be satisfied.

The Democratic newspapers are trying to make a martyr of Fred Hart because he has resigned the editorship of the Austin Reveille for the remainder of the campaign. Nonsense! No one in the world has a keener scent for coin than this same persecuted Frederick. He wouldn't have stepped down and out if he hadn't wanted to. His partner, Mr. Booth, was not the only one of the firm that felt it better to swallow spite than to spoil the Reveille's business by a foolish and angry course.

The editor of the Truckee Republican is evidently not a deep thinker nor a man of prayer. We don't expect that the points of our jokes can be seen by the eye of flesh. We are witty only for the edification of the righteous. A corrupt heart cannot surround and digest our regenerated humor. Let the sinner of the Republican study our jokes upon his knees, and our apostolic word for it, the worldly device of diagrams will not have to be called into requisition.

The frozen effrontery of Mr. Deal in claiming, the other night before an intelligent Reno audience, that Sam Tilden had been cheated out of the presidency, after the recent revelations of the cipher dispatches, was of a piece with his modest puffing of himself. Mr. Deal should be quietly killed by the voters on Tuesday next and then given respectable burial.

Excerpts, the keen and talented clipper of the Oakland Tribune, has begun to shove his scissors into the private life of Alexander the Great. This exceeds all other efforts at gross sensationalism of which Excerpts has been guilty, and people who believe in the sanctity of home should hire some one to sand-bag Excerpts.

The Virginia Chronicle must be hard pressed for arguments against Mr. Daggett when it publishes an abusive "open letter" to that gentleman from one Levy Lensky, a burglar confined in the county jail.

The President has issued a proclamation setting apart Thursday, the 28th inst., as a day of national thanksgiving. Most people in Washoe will be better able after election to tell whether they feel like being thankful or not.

An Offer of Marriage to Miss Owens.
SALT LAKE, November 1.—In the examination of the polygamist Miles, yesterday, Miss Owens testified that she came from London under a promise to marry Miles, who said she would be his first wife. The Spencer girls were to come after. She said: "I was to be married to the defendant on Thursday last. He stayed with me at Angus Cannon's house the night of our marriage, occupying the same apartment with me."

A CALIFORNIA OFFER.
MISS OWENS to-day received a letter from a Grass Valley (Cal.) ranchman, offering to marry her and give her a comfortable home. He had been reading the report in the Chronicle of her case, and became interested in her welfare. Miss Conley, the young lady who testified so pointedly yesterday, has been turned out of house and home by her Mormon relatives and is now being cared for by Gentiles. This ends, for the present, one of the most exciting and interesting cases ever heard in Salt Lake.

The "Fraud" Inquiry to be Stopped.

New York, Nov. 1.—The Tribune's Washington special says the Allison committee of the senate will not meet until after the assembling of congress. A number of Republicans have urged that the committee meet very soon after the elections and take up the cipher dispatches, as well as the later Anderson developments, as it is not believed that the Potter committee will attempt to investigate either of these matters. It has, however, been decided that these affairs are well enough as they stand for the present, and that the power of the Potter committee for mischief has been effectually suppressed. From all that can be learned Democrats are diligently seeking for some way of dropping their work and avoiding the ridicule any further movement in the investigation of "fraud" must bring upon them.

We Don't Blame Him.

(See Bee.)
One Harper in San Francisco is endeavoring to obtain a divorce from his wife. She kicked him out of bed, stove in his ribs with a chair and otherwise maltreated him. Being a man of 75 years, such treatment did not agree with his constitution. We do not blame him. There are some things which even conjugal affection cannot forgive, and when a woman gets her cold feet in the small of her husband's back and shoves him out on the bare and pitiless floor, it is time for a man to seek the protection of the courts.

Stockholders Meeting.

A special meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers' Co-Operative Association of Northwestern Nevada and Northeastern California, is called to meet at Reno, Saturday, November 2d, 1895, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of amending the by-laws and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

The Election in France.

PARIS, November 1.—The returns of the election for municipal delegates show that eleven departments now represented by twenty-seven conservative senators, have been won by the Republicans who lost no department. A Republican majority of twelve or fifteen is confidently expected in the next senate.

What He Will Do With It.

For Surveyor-General.
(Gold Hill News.)

The Republican state convention at Eureka placed in nomination for the office of surveyor-general, Andrew J. Hatch, of Washoe. The office is a minor one, but it is important that it should be filled by a good man, and by a Republican. Mr. Kinkead will rule the state as chief magistrate for the next four years, and it is a matter of some consequence that he be surrounded by men in the state government who are in affiliation with him on political questions. The different state officers, although not made so officially, should be regarded as a kind of cabinet, or council, with whom the governor may consistently advise of all matters of state policy, and unless there be harmony of political views, this scheme cannot be efficiently carried out. Mr. Hatch's personal character is without stain. He is a gentleman in every sense of the word, a man thoroughly competent to perform all the duties of his office, personal and otherwise. There is no good reason why any Republican should feel it incumbent on him to scratch his name from the ticket. Let all unite at the polls next Tuesday, and see to it that Mr. Hatch, as well as the entire Republican ticket, is elected. We have the power to compass this, if we will but use it efficiently.

Hunting Deer With a Steamboat.

(Seattle W. T. Intelligence, October 21.)
Yesterday, while on her down trip, some of the passengers of the Messenger saw a large, fine-looking deer swimming a short distance in advance of the boat. Captain Parker thought since venison steak would be pretty good for supper, so he slackened the speed of the boat and commenced to shoot at the animal. Not hitting him the first or two shots, he concluded to have a small boat lowered and capture the animal alive. Before the skiff could be manned the deer swam close enough to the steamer to have a rope thrown over his horns and was soon drawn on board. He seemed to enjoy the ride hugely, and he was the centre of attraction among the passengers for some time. Just before rounding Alki Point, Captain Parker had him killed and dressed, and the passengers of the Messenger will smother their lips over nice, fat, juicy venison steaks for some days to come.

Proposed International Exhibition.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—A meeting of prominent merchants and others was held last night to consider the question of inviting delegates from all the states to assemble in this city on the 30th of April next, the ninetieth anniversary of the inauguration of Washington as President of the United States, and consider the proposition of holding an exhibition of industry of all nations, in New York city in the year 1889 or sooner. A resolution was passed authorizing the chairman to appoint an executive committee of ten, who shall take the whole matter in charge and arrange the proposed meeting.

Darrell Has Only the Gout.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The story of Lord Beaconsfield having an attack of epilepsy is wholly untrue. He has been suffering somewhat for a few days past from a slight attack of gout, to which he has long been subject, but he is otherwise well and able to attend to the business of his high position.

A Robber Fatally Shot.

STOCKTON, Nov. 1.—As a man named Avey and a young lady were walking near the convent last evening they were stopped by a masked robber, who took the rings off the lady's finger, Avey not having any money about him. As soon as Avey turned the footpad did likewise. Avey then turned around, drew a revolver and shot the man in the back. He then fired three shots at Avey, none of them taking effect. Avey discharged five shots at the fellow, the first being the only one that hit him. The fellow came to the jail, surrendered himself to the jailor, and said that he had been shot while robbing a man, and would like to be cared for. He gave his name as John Dexter Ruggles, aged about twenty years. The ball entered the small of the back and lodged in the right lung. He will probably die before morning. He acknowledged that he had stopped a Mr. Reed on Tuesday evening and relieved him of $7. He says Avey fired first, but Avey denies it. Four men have been stopped this week by footpads and relieved of their valuables. The prisoner has been in this city since October 10th, doing odd jobs, and was under a physician's treatment. He was from Yolo county where his folks reside.

A Perilous Position.

DETROIT, Nov. 1.—The steamer Deper yesterday morning encountered the four-masted barge J. H. Rutter, off Ludington, water logged, and succeeded in getting her within one mile of Ludington harbor, when she could do no more and was obliged to leave her. During the night the vessel sunk in twenty-five feet of water, about one mile from Ludington. The captain, crew and some seventy men that went to the vessel last night to help trim her were in the rigging. The sea is running very high and it is impossible for a tug to get to her. The Life Saving Station is doing all it can to rescue the men. It is reported this morning that the vessel is breaking up.

An Interesting Revenge.

(S. F. Post.)
H. R. Mighels, editor of the Carson Appeal, and candidate of the Republican party in Nevada for lieutenant governor, is taking an interesting revenge on an editor who is making a personal fight against him. The Carson Tribune is very bitter. The Appeal retaliates by the republication of the Tribune's favorable and flattering notices of Mr. Mighels while speaker of the house during the legislature; also, notices equally as flattering of his position and acts in previous legislatures. As Mr. Mighels has not changed, it is very evident that the Tribune man has.

A Mere Sham.

(Sacramento Bee.)
He has a wife and family and we spared him. He came softly in and remarked: "Got a pretty good thing if you'd get it off in neat shape. You might say that this Afghanistan affair is a mere sham." Looks of astonishment all round! "Don't you see," continued he, "a mere sham. The ruler of Afghanistan is called Ameer, and from that you have a mere—" But he got no further. He saw the coming storm and ran a race down stairs with the local editor's spittoon, just saving his neck by a duck of his head.

Unavailing a Confederate Monument.

AUGUSTA, Georgia, October 31.—The confederate monument, the work of the Ladies' Memorial Association, was unveiled to-day in the presence of a vast concourse of people. Governor Colquitt, Alexander H. Stephens and other distinguished citizens were present. The military was heaved by the thirteenth infantry post band from Atlanta. Several confederate battle flags were displayed on the stand in front of the monument, and the star-spangled banner and confederate flag were blended and surmounted by an olive-fringed streamer with the watchword "Peace."

The Greatest Outrage on Record.

NEW YORK, November 1.—According to a dispatch from Port Jervis, the people around Thompson, Penn., are all looking for a couple of tramps who entered the village school after the children had been dismissed, seized the teacher, Alice Kennett, and grossly assaulted her. Then to prevent her telling the story, out her her tongue. The young woman managed to reach the blackboard, wrote the circumstances of the terrible affair, and a description of the scoundrels, and then died.

A Fight With Texas Stage Robbers.

GALVESTON, November 1.—Two masked men stopped the west-bound stage to-day near Merry creek. While the highwaymen were plundering the mail bags two freighters drove up and opened fire on the robbers. One of their horses was wounded. The robbers returned the fire and both mounted one horse and rode away. They secured three registered packages, the value of which is unknown.

A Judge Retires—A Crazy Murderer.

PORTLAND, Nov. 1.—On account of reduced salary, Judge Shattuck, of the state circuit court, retires to-night. He will be succeeded by C.B. Bellinger.

Weddle, who shot a husband and wife, killing the former, a short time ago at Union, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for life. The man is evidently crazy and in love.

Democracy Take Notice.

Having noticed that Dr. T. N. Snow has issued circulars posted in conspicuous places, announcing himself as the regular Democratic nominee for superintendent of public instruction in Washoe county, we, the central committee for the real nominee of the party, that owing to an unfortunate, and as we believe a false report, against Dr. Snow, one of our committee waited on the doctor and frankly told him that owing to that report, we thought he had better, in the interest of the party, decline the nomination, at the same time inviting him to be present at a meeting of the central committee to be held on a certain evening. He was present at the meeting, and after explaining his innocence of the charges reported against him, declined the nomination, which was accepted, and M. Soderberg was nominated and elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Dr. T. N. Snow. And we hereby announce that M. Soderberg is the regular Democratic nominee for Superintendent of Public Instruction for Washoe county. By order of the Democratic Central Committee of Washoe county.

GOVERNOR WOODS.

An Able and Logical Discourse upon the History of the Two Great Parties.

The largest meeting of the campaign was addressed by Governor Geo. L. Woods, of Oregon, at the Reno Opera House last night. The meeting was called to order by Dr. Fred Hutchins, and John Bowman was elected chairman. Dr. Hutchins addressed the meeting briefly and discussed state affairs and the administration of "Old Broadhorns" closely. Dr. Hutchins produced statistics tending to prove that the Democratic state officers have wasted large sums of the public money. The speaker instituted a comparison between Blaisdell and Bradley which resulted in the latter's complete disfigurement. Bradley had saved money only to pay it out in extortionate relief bills, which the speaker called robberies. Bradley was not an honest man, nor a good citizen. He owns no property in the state and pays no taxes. Notwithstanding this last fact he went on Jerry Schooling's bond for $50,000, which was certainly not honest. Kittrell was landing Bradley before the people when he secretly hated him. Kittrell gained his nomination by formulating a set of charges against Bradley and threatening his publication unless he (Kittrell) was renominated.

Dr. Hutchins also censured the pretended Republicans of Washoe and Ormsby county who are engaged in an unscrupulous warfare against a candidate for district judge. The speaker had known this gentleman for years; he came to Humboldt as a chain bearer in a surveying party; had worked hard in a flannel shirt, and was taken from this position by the people and put in the office of county clerk. When Varian's term expired he had fitted himself for the practice of law. After this the people again asked for his services and sent him to the state senate, receiving him at the expiration of his term with a most flattering ovation. Judge Leonard, now of the supreme court, made a speech of welcome, and citizens of all parties united to do him honor. Nothing can be said against the political record or private life of Mr. Varian, and the speaker believed him worthy of support from both parties in his candidacy for district judge. Dr. Hutchins' remarks were well received and applauded. At their conclusion the chairman introduced of Oregon, who promised to discuss the issues of to-day, not as a petty politician, but from a higher standpoint. Gov. Woods made a very able political lecture, and while we can not attempt to reproduce his exact language we may still be able to convey to our readers some of the references and arguments which made the speech strong and convincing. The speaker was proud of the fact that he was a Republican. Headmired independent and free-thinking men and women, and always aimed to make people think. He dealt more with the philosophy of petty circumstances of every day campaigning. The rise and progress of the partisan spirit took in the entire history of the young republic. The speaker described the separation into great national parties, which took place one hundred years ago, and showed that the dominant theories of the great factions were built upon ideas inherited from the mother country. These theories had finally taken an original form and substance with the growth and development of American life. The old Whig party was the best exponent of American needs, which was ever organized. Much as the speaker loved the Republican party of to-day, he loved more the grand old Whig organization of the past.

The Democratic party was ready for burial in 1846 when the Whig party completed its mission, and but for the strength it gained from the Mexican war would have died then. In 1850 the leaders of the Democracy in the hope of perpetuating the party and their own power and uniting the South under its banners, began an aggressive war in favor of

and here the long dormant idea of a confederation of states again sprang into existence. The speaker then told how the Republican party accomplished the grand work of emancipation. How it arose from among the people and declared for the freedom and equality of all men, and that this was a nation powerful to defend its name at home or abroad. From a review of the condition of affairs before and during the great war which had been necessary in order that this great question of human slavery might be solved, every man could see that the opponents of the Republican party were essentially a rebel democracy. They have always and without exception been the pro-slavery party. They are responsible for the struggles which have torn the country and involved it in rebellion. They have been the party of secession, rebellion and slavery. They are none the less so to-day. Of course there are thieves and traitors in all parties, but the Republicans have punished these wherever found. There is no stain upon the Democrats by reason of their having done so. The Democrats want us all to

FORGET THE WAR.

Why? If you are looking for men of worth and integrity to fill positions of trust and importance you review their past records. The Democratic party is now asking for your suffrage. Upon what ground then, can it ask you to pass over its record? The war was a Democratic achievement, and if they came again into power they would so lead the nation as to make another war unavoidable. That is why we should oppose Democratic accession to power, and a good reason for always remembering the last war and its instigators. Rebels are not cured in one decade, and the same impulses and opportunities will produce again the same misfortunes. The Democratic speakers are telling you that the fourteenth amendment prohibits the payment of

REBEL WAR CLAIMS.

They know that it does not prohibit the payment of private claims, but they do not tell you so. Indeed it is no fault of the Democracy that the war claims themselves are barred. The Democracy consistently opposed the fourteenth amendment and the honor of its passage belongs entirely to the Republican party. The shallow retrenchment policy and hollow reform cry of the forty-fourth congress (Democratic) next engaged attention. Facts and figures would show that these men, while cutting down the salaries of judges, porters, etc., were forced in order to meet expenses to pass relief and deficiency bills amounting in the aggregate to more than was necessary before.

The infamous Potter inquiry was also a sample of Democratic economy, and the disposition of the party towards justice and fair dealing. Democratic demagoguery is now doing itself at the expense of the Chinese question. The Democrats were in power when the treaty was first made, and they have never attempted a change. Sargent and Page, Republicans, are the only men who ever attempted to bring about any correction of this evil. When Mr. Deal says he can abrogate the Burlingame treaty he is either an ignoramus or a liar, for congress has no power to abrogate treaties. Gov. Woods recognized that the government must regulate fares and freights, and was in favor of hard money. A national money congress to establish a circulating medium for universal use, should be organized. The speaker had doubts as to the success of the Republican ticket when he came to the state, but now, after traveling among the people he felt assured of a sweeping Republican victory on Tuesday next.

Gov. Woods proved himself last night to be an eloquent and able man. His address was not finished until 10:30, the audience calling upon him to continue whenever he thought of closing. The Republican party in Washoe have not heard an effort of equal merit during the campaign, and the organization will no doubt profit by the lessons of last night.

In a Fog.

"What's botherin' me," said a careworn looking man on Virginia street this morning, "is what'n blazes I'm to believe. I ain't much on politics myself, but what I want is know how to vote. I've been to all the meetin's to find out but I'm in a reg'lar jumble. Daggett he says Deal lies with his liver on most things and Deal says Daggett is another. Some speakers say Bradley's an old ijt and don't know beans, but 'others ag'in says he's the ekal o' George Washington. Woodburn says no house o' representatives can do away with the Burlingame treaty and Deal says he knows better and as 'kin fix it. Ellis he says—what was it Ellis said tother night? Anyhow, him an' Deal agree that there ain't no possibility o' the payment o' the rebel war claims. Woodburn and Guv'nor Wood they say you can bet the Democrats will find some way to pay 'em. Then I'm told that Beck that's runnin' on the Workin'men's ticket is a better Republican than Powning that's at the head o' the Republican ticket and that somebody else on the Democratic ticket is better nor both o' 'em. Then there's Mrs. Smith; she goes for the scalps of all concerned, an' damme if I ain't in a fog."

But he accepted invitations to drink from three candidates of three different parties within the next fifteen minutes.

A Shameful Distortion.

[Stock Exchange.]
The appearance of a deserving stump-speaker in Reno is thus announced by the GAZETTE, an irreverent sheet published in that village: "Misther Hugh J. Mohan, wan av the brightist minds av the clintury, and an avminit to the prothin av Jhur-nihum, will hictify the Dimocracy of Rayno to-morrow night." It was in Reno that the entire population a few nights ago combined to rob a defenseless stranger from Virginia city, and then tarred and feathered the unfortunate man because he had only $4 75 and an oriole watch chain.

At Glendale.

As we announced yesterday every candidate felt it his duty to be on hand at Glendale last night, and the majority of the anxious was there. Three sheriffs, two recorders and commissioners until you couldn't rest. Louis Dean was as usual efficient in the management of affairs and every body came away pleased. The supper was good and the dance was enjoyable like all country dances.

The Millennium.

"The 1000 years of Revelation 20th chapter," is the subject of this evening's lecture by Elder B. A. Stephens in the Congregational church. To-morrow evening: "The millennium or will the world ever be converted to Christianity?" Services at 7:30 o'clock.

CONSTABLE BARLOW SHOT.

A Row with Richard Robertson Results Seriously.

Last evening about 7 o'clock Constable H. W. Barlow was shot by Richard Robertson in Joe Crews' saloon at the corner of Commercial Row and Virginia street. The circumstances which led to the shooting can not be very clearly ascertained. From a number of persons, including Robinson himself, it seems that there has been bad blood between the two for a few weeks past. Robertson was appointed a deputy sheriff during fair week, and after serving for two days was discharged. Barlow, he says, accused him of having robbed a drunken man and that caused his discharge. Last evening the two met in Morris Ash's saloon. Barlow said something to Robertson and Robertson called him a liar with the usual amplifications. Barlow raised his cane and struck at him. Robertson caught the blow upon his arm, which to-day is swollen and discolored. Sheriff Lamb and others separated the men. Barlow was held and the sheriff led Robertson to the door when he turned and said to Barlow:

"If you ever strike me with that cane again I'll kill you."

Shortly after this, Robertson went to a gunsmith and procured a pistol, an I X L five-shooter, saying that he would only want it for a day or so and would pay for the use of it, and left the price of the pistol as security for its return. A little later Robertson was standing in front of Crews' saloon on Commercial Row in conversation with some friends when Barlow came up behind him and felled him to the sidewalk by a blow with his cane on the back of his head. The GAZETTE reporter has the statement from a number of eye-witnesses. Barlow was seized by a number of citizens, among them Mr. Crews, who jumped through the open window of his cigar stand and succeeded in depriving Barlow of his cane, which he took into the saloon. Barlow followed him in, demanding his cane. All this time Robertson was lying insensible upon the sidewalk. When he recovered consciousness his first question was whether he had been shot and then he demanded to know who had struck him and was told. Robertson, like Barlow, was considerably under the influence of liquor and with the whisky and the effect of the blow, he was hardly able to keep his feet. He reeled down Virginia street and through the side door of the saloon, saw Barlow standing at the door. Crews was at the moment expostulating with the constable for his conduct, saying that if the man had done anything wrong he should arrest him. Barlow adopted the suggestion and turned toward the door, saw Robertson who had entered and made for him. Barlow dodged behind the stove, an' a pair with a large drum above it, and kept ducking up and down. The second shot went through the drum and then the shooter went out on the sidewalk. Barlow came out from behind his breastwork when

and took the constable in the chin. A big crowd gathered, Robertson was taken into custody, and Barlow was conveyed to Dr. Dawson's office. The ball had glanced downward, and the doctor informed the GAZETTE reporter last night that he had probed the wound as far down as it was safe to do so and had not found it, showing that the wound was a very dangerous one, as the ball might have fallen into the cavity of the cheek or lodged in the neighborhood of the large arteries of the neck, whence it could not with safety be extracted. He was taken to his home. Three bullets were found in the saloon after the shooting, one imbedded in the counter and the other two lying on the floor. [As the pistol was a five-shooter and had two chambers loaded when taken from Robertson, it would seem that the ball did not lodge in Barlow at all. It is possible that one of the bullets found did not come from Robertson's pistol, or that the ball penetrated the windshield and was wrenched out, although Dr. Dawson states that he failed to find any indications of this.]

is not one to be envied by a man in his present scrape. About two years ago he shot and seriously wounded a man named Lewis in Gold Hill and was sent to the penitentiary for it. He was pardoned after a few months ago. Lately he has been working at the Emma mine and making himself active in politics, delivering speeches at the Workingmen's meetings and otherwise building up a reputation as a "worker." In this affair with Barlow, however, public opinion is decidedly in his favor. Last night J. J. Anshitz came in from the Emma mine and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Robertson, Joseph Williams and Michael McRafferty, for an assault to kill. He stated that the night before Williams and McRafferty had held him while Robertson attempted to disembowel him with a dirk, but that the point had struck his belt and his life was thus saved. Robertson stated to a GAZETTE reporter this morning that his trouble with Anshitz was grossly exaggerated. It appears that the two men were not on friendly terms and night before last all hands had been drinking candidates' whisky. Robertson says Anshitz had been talking about him and he seized him by the collar and ran him back some distance in the hoisting works and drew back his hand in which he held a short stick which had served for a stopper of the election demijohn, as he threatened to thrash Anshitz if he repeated his libels. This was the only thing about him that could possibly have been mistaken for a knife. No one held Anshitz, and he had parted on good terms with him that night. The truth of the matter will no doubt be got at in court.

POLITICAL.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1878.

Resolved, That we reaffirm the principles of, and renew our allegiance to the party which preserved the Union, freed the slaves and maintained the essential doctrine: that this is a nation and not a confederacy bound together with ropes of sand, and that the State and national governments should give ample and complete protection to its citizens, both at home and abroad; that against the assaults of traitors and rebels the Republican party has preserved these governments; and the Republicans of Nevada now demand that every qualified elector in every State—in every State, South and North, Democrats or Republicans; black or white—shall be permitted, undisturbed by force and unawed by fear, to vote at all elections, at the places prescribed by law, and that every vote shall be honestly counted, and that every person chosen by such votes, to any office shall be freely inducted into it, and effectively supported in the discharge of its duties. That the permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union, and complete protection of all its citizens, in their civil, political, personal and property rights, is the duty to which the Republican party stands secretly pledged. In order to redeem this pledge, it placed the amendments to the Constitution, and upon the right to the work of pacification, until peace shall come through right doing, and contentment through justice. That the evident purpose of the Democratic party, if it should come into full power, is to pay hundreds of millions of suspended war claims of disloyal men, already presented to Congress or awaiting a favorable moment for presentation, makes it doubly important, now that the Senate is soon to pass under Democratic domination, that the House of Representatives be chosen in the coming election should be under Republican control.

Resolved, That the validity of the presidential term was definitely and finally settled by the forty-fourth Congress, and that the attempt shadowed forth by the Potter resolutions to disturb the title by President Hayes and Vice-President Wheeler, hold their place in revolutionary and dangerous in the extreme, and characteristic as it is of the underlying motives of the rebel Democracy call for our unqualified disapproval and denunciation.

Resolved, That it is the duty of Congress to perfect with all possible expedition such legislation as will secure to the country the benefit of an honest and equitable adjustment of freight and fares on all railroads, whose construction is the result of land grants, subsidies, loans and other government aid assistance.

Resolved, That the Republican party favors and demands at the hands of the State Legislature legislation having in view the regulation and equalization of freights and fares on all railroads within this State.

Resolved, That the chargeable disregard of our avowed principles, the Democratic party of this State in their unimpeachable purpose to nominate the present incumbent of the gubernatorial office for a third term, have brought upon themselves the deserved distrust, not only of every Republican, but of the more honorable and consistent members of their own party.

Resolved, That we believe in the doctrine of rotation in office, and that believing we are opposed to the nomination of candidates to office under the State government for a third term.

Resolved, that we hail with joy the remonetization of silver as a step toward our emancipation from the grasp of the corrupt money rings of Europe and America, and we ask Congress to complete the remonetization of our redemption by according to silver unrestricted coinage.

Resolved, That in the legislation of the forty-fifth Congress, nothing more fully commands our approbation than the efforts of our Senators and Representatives in securing the remonetization of silver and the dual standard in the coinage of the country.

Resolved, That there should be reinforcement in the public service, that men elected to office should be qualified by education, intelligence and business habits to perform the duties of their respective offices, and that the system of deputyships and clerkships at present existing in the interest of State officers should be abolished at once and forever.

Resolved, That public lands are the property of the people, and therefore they should be reserved for actual settlers, aided in the settlement by the Government and protected in their possessions by just laws.

Resolved, That we recognize the wisdom of the framers of our constitution in providing for the taxation of the proceeds of the mines; that all taxes should be equal and uniform; that the present system of taxation is as just and fair as any that can be devised and should be preserved; that the mining corporations doing business in this State pay no more than their just proportion of taxes, while the railroad property within this State pay much less than its just proportion; that no more taxes should be raised any one year than are necessary to defray the actual and necessary expenses of the State during the same period, when economically and honestly administered; that the present rate of assessment of property should be decreased so as to produce only such a sum as is absolutely required to pay the expenses of the State, at the same time having due regard to the surplus of funds already in the treasury.

Resolved, That the Republican party of the State of Nevada is opposed to and protests against any repeal, modification or any change in the law taxing the proceeds of the mines commonly known as the "bullion tax law."

Resolved, That we refer with pride to the record of the Republican party in Congress, where, in spite of the assaults of a malignant and unscrupulous opposition, not one stain of dishonor rests, and not one act has been brought to light which reflects anything, but honors upon the representatives of our organization and its principles.

Resolved, That labor in itself recognizes the Republican party as its exponent; demands emancipation from oppression, and elevation to its proper dignity, a just and equal place with capital, and that both are alike necessary to the well-being of society.

Resolved, That the general government should immediately take such steps as to absolutely stop the further immigration of Asiatics to our country; and that such just and peaceful measures should be adopted as may be appropriate and necessary to induce those already among us to quit our shores at the earliest practical moment.

Resolved, That the Republican party of the State of Nevada enters its most solemn protest and condemnation against any corrupt interference in the political or legislative of this State, by moneyed rings or corporations, or the representative of aggregated wealth or capital; that we view with alarm the increasing and unceasing attempts of the moneyed powers of the Pacific States to control the elections and shape the legislation of said States; that the principal and practice are fraught with danger to our Republican reform government, and should be frowned down, and resisted by every individual who has at heart the welfare of American institutions and the freedom of the masses.

Resolved, That we are unalterably opposed to the diversion of any moneys raised by the taxation of the whole people to the use or benefit of any sect or religious denomination.

Resolved, That we solemnly declare it to be the sentiment of the Republican party that the breach of a pledge given to a nominating convention by a successful candidate for office is more disgraceful and dishonorable than the violation of any private trust or duty can possibly be.

Resolved, That to promote the advancement of education and morals, to stimulate a true and beneficent enlightenment, and to preserve to the men, women and children of this State the fruits of the taxes so cheerfully borne and the system of public schools; to maintain the Union and protect its flag; to guard the memories of the dead who died in the name of Union, liberty and law; and to vindicate all our acts and purposes is the aim and mission of the Republican party here and elsewhere; and, first of all, to do that which is best for the preservation and perpetuation of that party and its principles, holding all men's claims and aspirations secondary to these high claims and ends; these are our duties, and these the intentions we do most strenuously maintain and avow.

E. B. HARRIS, Chairman,
LLP. DONEN, Secretary,
Of the Republican State Central Committee.

REPUBLICAN

COUNTY PLATFORM.

Resolved, That we have known the Republican party to be the party of good government, and that it has always guaranteed the greatest good to the greatest number. Believing that an insidious foe in time of peace is no less dangerous than an avowed enemy in time of war, we refer to the glorious record of the Republican party as a full guarantee of its national use and significance. We therefore declare it to be the first duty of good citizens and in the first interests of good government that the Republican party be continued as the law-making power of the land.

Resolved, That we do heartily endorse the platform of the State convention of our party, held in Eureka Sept. 18th. That we endorse the same, both in spirit and letter, and do pledge our candidates to a fulfillment of the promises therein made to the people.

Resolved, That this convention, as a representative of the Republican party of Washoe county, heartily endorse and applaud the vote of Washoe's Senators and Assemblymen in the Legislature of '77 upon the infamous Bullion Tax compromise bill. And we declare that in our best judgment such vote was cast for honesty, purity and the public good.

Resolved, That, in our best judgment, the official acts of the Hon. J. F. Jones in the Senate of the United States meet with the hearty concurrence and approbation of the Republican party of Washoe county.

Resolved, That Washoe county demands a careful revision of the fee bill of this State, and such legislation relative to the compensation of public officials as the exigencies of the case require. Believing that the fees of the public servants ought to be definitely and precisely fixed by law and regulated upon the basis of a fair compensation for the service performed, our candidates for the Senate and Assembly are hereby instructed and pledged, if elected, to use honorable means to secure legislation in this respect that will equitably regulate and adjust the correlative obligations of the people and public officers concerning public duties and the compensation therefor.

Resolved, That the Republican party of Washoe county believes the very first qualifications of its candidates must be honesty and capacity. No personal friendships or popularity shall be permitted to conceal or extenuate the dishonest or incapable administration of public affairs. Therefore the Republican party in convention assembled does hereby pledge itself and its candidates to a careful and prudent administration of the county affairs, and to such reforms or to existing abuses as the nature of the case demands.

Resolved, That we solemnly declare it to be the doctrine of the Republican party that the pledges given to a nominating convention by a successful candidate for office are binding and valid during his official term, that there is no power in any committee, State or county, to revoke them, and that a breach of such pledges is more disgraceful and dishonorable than the violation of any private trust or duty can possibly be.

Resolved, That we recognize property as the product of labor applied to forest, field, forge, furnace, mine and manufacture. That the wealth of any State or nation is proportionate to the number of its laborers. That States are more or less prosperous according to the wages which its laborers command, and that labor is the product, while capital is only the result of such production. Believing that the policy of capital gives luxury to the few while well paid and prosperous labor gives comfort to all. We declare our wish that the interests of labor shall have a governing influence in shaping the affairs of state, thus bringing the greatest good to the greatest number.

Resolved, That the convention refuses to confer any appointing or elective power whatever upon the county central committee which shall be named by this body. We recognize the right of the people alone to name delegates to all conventions of the party, and we repudiate any other course as a manifest attempt to usurp by committee action rights which belong alike to every Republican.

Resolved, That our Senator and Assemblymen are pledged against remission of the penalty of $125,000 due the State from certain mining companies doing business in Storey county, and to oppose any bill looking to relieve such companies from said obligations.

Resolved, That the Republican party of Storey county, and to oppose any bill looking to relieve such companies from said obligations.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

The Democratic party of the State of Nevada announces the following as its platform of principles and live issues for the present campaign. The Democratic party affirms as its principles:

Gold and silver the only legal tender; no currency unconvertible with coin; the honest payment of the public debt; a sacred preservation of the public faith; revenue reform, and a tariff for revenue only; no government partnership with monopolies; no subsidies to corporations or individuals; no class legislation; no unjust or unequal taxation; the reservation of so much of the public domain as the Republican party has not already given away to railroad corporations, for the benefit of actual settlers; the maintenance of a non-sectarian common school system; acquiescence in the lawfully expressed will of the majority; the equality of all citizens before the law; economy in public expenses, that labor may be lightly burdened; a moderation of the military to the civil power; no centralization; and a strict construction of the Federal Constitution.

As important issue, entitled to especial mention, the Democratic party of Nevada presents:

1st. The induction of R. B. Hayes into the office of President, in violation of the clearly expressed will of the people, is denounced, as the highest crime against free government and the most dangerous encroachment upon popular rights ever perpetrated in the country. While in the high interest of public tranquility we submit to the constituted Federal Administration, yet the investigation of the House of Representatives is especially commended, to the end that the vile bargain and corruption may be exposed and the brand of infamy stamped where it rightfully belongs.

2d. The Democracy of Nevada advocates the removal of all restrictions to the coinage of silver and the re-establishment of silver as a money metal the same as gold—the same as it was before its fraudulent demonetization by a Republican Congress in 1873; the substitution of United States currency for national bank notes; no further sale of interest bearing bonds for coin, for resumption purposes; but the gradual reduction of the public debt; and rigid economy in all branches of the public service.

3d. In view of the recent decision of the

POLITICAL.

Supreme Court of the United States, State and National legislation is demanded to protect the people of Nevada from the outrageous discrimination and excessive charges of railroad corporations, within this State.

4th. The Democracy of Nevada denounces the Chinese element as an incubus that will paralyze honest labor in any civilized country on earth and demands such a radical change in the treaty with the Chinese Empire as will forever stop the immigration of the Chinese to the United States.

5th. The Democracy of Nevada is in favor of the State, county and municipal government; and that every species of property bear its just and equal burden of taxation. While no war is made on the great corporations, it is demanded that their property shall contribute to the support of government, the same as other property. Unfolding opposition to any further exemption of the net proceeds of the mines is announced, the mining interests being now sufficiently encouraged and protected. Such a reduction of State taxation is demanded as will prevent any accumulation of money in the State Treasury, and as will only furnish a sufficiency for the interest on the State debt and the economical administration of the State government.

6th. The Democracy repudiates the doctrine that any officer may disregard and ignore the pledges made by his constituents, and on the faith of which he was elected; and declares that if such practice be tolerated it will result in the destruction of representative Democratic government, and we declare that no power exists which can relieve officers from pledges made to the people previous to election.

7th. The Democracy of Nevada holds the ballot to be the inalienable right of every citizen; views with alarm the efforts of the great foreign corporations to control the political contests in Nevada, and urges the people of this State by their votes and the polls in the approaching election, so signally to rebuke and trample upon such interference as will forever prevent its repetition.

8th. The Democracy of Nevada recognizes the right as well as the necessity, of organizing and maintaining by the industrial classes, Miner's Unions and "Mechanics' Unions," and other associations, for the purpose of protection against Chinese pauper labor. Under a wise and frugal government, which it is the mission of the Democracy to maintain and perpetuate, any resort to force, or to violation of law, or invasion of the right of person or property, to redress grievances, is needless and at war with free institutions.

By legislators fostering and favoring the great moneyed corporations, such as national banks, railroad, steamship, telegraphs and manufacturing companies, the Republican party has perverted the Government from its true object, protecting the people, and made it the instrument of plundering them. It has concentrated vast wealth in the hands of a few, while the telling millions who created that wealth are struggling in poverty and enforced idleness; and it has enabled monopolies to devote to great a portion of the earnings as to take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned.

9th. The Democracy of Nevada congratulates the country upon the acceptance, by the present administration, of the constitutional and pacific policy of local and self-government in the States South, so long advocated by the Democratic party, resulting in peace and harmony to that section of the Union.

10th. The Democracy demands the Legislature to pass additional enactments to enable stockholders to visit and examine mining property in which they are interested.

THE THIRD GUBERNATORIAL TERM.

The Democracy declares that honesty, capacity, devotion to the truest principles of Government and the faithful observance of pledges, constitute of themselves the highest title to its re-election, and further there is no resemblance between the case of the Governor of a State, with little patronage, and with powers limited by the strict provisions of the constitution, and that of a President of the United States, by virtue of his office, Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy and the head of one hundred thousand office-holders, striving to perpetuate a personal and tyrannical rule by the unscrupulous use of all means his command. The career of the late President of the United States furnishes the most complete proof of the danger of a third Presidential term which we wage against and seek to avoid in the future; that of the present Governor of Nevada presents the strongest evidence of the wisdom of our action in discarding, in its application to State affairs, a doctrine long repudiated by the Republican party, and now elided by it for the present occasion.

Finally, the Democratic party of Nevada, by its convention assembled, takes occasion to especially commend Governor L. R. Bradley for preventing, by his veto, an unjust modification of the revenue laws now in force taxing the proceeds of the mines, showing himself by his fearless vindication of the people's rights worthy of the full confidence of the good and true men of all parties of this State.
